Honorable Judge Mahan

Re: USA v SAMUEL DAVIS CASE NUMBER 2:09-CR-078-JCM

Judge Mahan:

On or about January 25 of this year you granted me an extension of 90 days for reporting to federal prison for medical reasons related to my diabetic condition. Thank you for that and by way of update please note the following: I have made the transition to insulin, have been in regular contact with my doctor, and am doing relatively well with a couple of notable exceptions. Currently both of my arms down to and including my fingers go numb off and on throughout the day and I have two doctors examining that symptom.

I am writing today Your Honor, to ask you again for another extension of 60 days for the following reason(s): My wife and I are losing our home to foreclosure. Our home will be sold on June 5, 2012 and I have to figure out where to live for her and help her move 25 years of belongings to somewhere. We believed that some things could happen with the property that would enable it to be saved but that has not and now will not happen. Currently, with knowledge and permission of my probation officer, Bill Sullivan, a fine man by the way, I have been helping two of my sons in North Dakota and will most likely relocate my wife to there where she will have some support and help. There is a place there that we can move our belongings into storage until such time as we can pick up the pieces of our lives and start anew. She will have an opportunity there to find a good job as it appears that North Dakota is one of the few places in this country that help wanted signs are prevalent. She cannot do this move alone, as the travel itself is a 2-day drive one way and we have much to do.

I have had no issues of problems with anyone or anything as Mr. Sullivan will attest. I am requesting that you grant me another 60 days to handle my affairs for and with my wife so that she may transition in this move with some help and support. My request is not unreasonable, it is truly a legitimate need to assist my family and at least begin to prepare for life after prison. I respectfully request Your Honor grant me these 60 days to June 27 before reporting. I would also respectfully request that my sentence be served in South Dakota instead of Sheridan, Oregon as it would be closer to my wife.

Your Honor, at sentencing I asked your forgiveness for my wrongdoing. To date, I have no idea if you indeed have forgiven me. Forgiveness is very important to me, as I understand it is the discharge of debt, even so to society. I have not been angry with anyone in all of this, in fact, I have long since forgiven everyone involved including but not limited to myself. I acted wrongly and I believe that I have taken responsibility for my actions. I do not believe that my sentence to prison serves any purpose except to impose burden on my family and more cost to the government. I am no one special, I am just a man who made a mistake. Prison serves no purpose for me, as I have completely changed my view of all that goes on around me, including the actions or in-actions of government. The scripture commands that we not bear false witness, in all of this I have never told one falsehood about anyone. I do believe I made a mistake in thinking I was special, I am not, I just made a mistake.

Your Honor, thank you for taking the time to read this as I am making the assumption that you are and have. I again ask that you grant me at least 60 days to take care of my wife's needs. I ask God's blessing upon you and thank you in advance for your consideration, as I grant you "release without consideration".

My best regards,

Sam Davis
